Sir:

Please amend the above-referenced application as follows:

Please cancel claims 31, 33 and 34 without prejudice.

Please amend the remaining claims as indicated below:

32 (amended). [The system of Claim 31 further comprising:] A data collector and analyzer system comprising:

a vibration transducer for sensing vibration and for producing an analog vibration signal corresponding to the vibration;

a conditioning circuit for receiving and conditioning the analog vibration signal from the vibration transducer to produce a conditioned analog signal, and having:

- (a) a filter for producing the conditioned analog signal having a desired frequency range;
- (b) an amplifier for producing the conditioned analog signal at a desired amplitude;
